About This Game

Heat Guardian is a hardcore top-down shooter set in a freezing world. You'll have to travel through the dying lands to find the one last stronghold of humanity – trying your best to stay alive. Deadly mutants, limited resources and even the world itself make this journey a trial only the most skilled survivors can endure. In this grim place there is no easy way – prepare to fight for your life!

Our world is dead. What's left of humanity is scattered over the ruins of civilization consumed by the endless winter. Mutants are the new dominant species – they hunt down everyone unlucky enough to survive the apocalypse. And you are one of those who keep fighting for their lives amidst all the horror.

Surviving is a skill to master in Heat Guardian. Your foes are lethal and your ammo is scarce. On top of that you can't escape the main enemy – it's in the air you breathe. Cold rules everything around and surviving means staying warm. Fail – and you'll freeze to death.

What makes Heat Guardian special?

- Atmosphere. The world is dead, the remains of humanity are living their last days. Can you find a glimmer of hope in this cruel winter?
  - A full-scale story campaign. A dangerous journey split between 40 levels – sure it won't be a brief ride.
  - Hardcore action. Mastering the game's combat is a process of trial and error – you'll see the 'Game over' screen a lot before learning to fight back.
  - Surviving the endless winter. Keep yourself warm and count your ammo to stay alive in this harsh new world.
  - Post-Soviet aesthetic. Heat Guardian takes place on the ruins of Eastern Europe.
  - Tools of survival. More than 50 weapon types and tools to help you in your path.
  - Fight-till-you-die mode. Additional game mode for the diehards – how long can you last against endless waves of enemies?

Travel through the dying lands of Heat Guardian and find the last stronghold of humanity!

Fun little platformer. I hate lvl 1-8 though. The difficulty jump from the previous and to be honest the successive levels is insane. I died about 100 times and still didn't beat it for some reason. Wasn't enough to keep me away from the game though. Interesting double jump mechanic keeps it interesting.. This game is a joy to play...if you can get it working. The securom DRM the developers use for this title makes it literally unplayable for people who purchase it and with the shutdown of Gamespy Arcade, there is no means to access the multiplayer.

Until the devs or community release a way to access the multiplayer and actually install the game, it's a waste of money.. Very different, but enjoyable.. Interesting mechanics, decent idea, not a fan of the execution. That being said I did play all the way through the game. But overall didn't enjoy the experience.. The game feels, well very empty and very unoptimized. I would recommend against this game for various reasons. Love it, Very Good!. I am pleased with the quality to price ratio of this game. Not a good introduction to the tower defense genre, but as a veteran I find that it is enjoyable. The difficulty from map to map varies significantly, and because of the co-op option I highly recommend you buy a friend a copy at the same time. The GUI has been criticized a great deal, but I don't have a problem with it. Be sure to watch the tutorials in their entirety, it is worth the wait. I give it a solid 7 or 8 out of 10.. There is no story, no goals... just get to the next level... it gets boring after a while.

I really love this game, it is very easy to play and has very simple mechanics, the only challenge is the circuits. Every circuit is different and gets you to think. I never found myself finding it too hard or too easy, even if i had to spend a while on some levels.. This little indie game is totally a gem! I found out about it from someone who worked on the game. Getting used to changing polarities took a few minutes, but once I had it down I was zipping through without a care in the world! I loved it! Almost an exploration platformer, but I would 100% recommend it if you are a fan of platforming type games

10V10. Endless Fun.. i got this game 1 of 10 game with 4$(3.5 without fee) on {LINK REMOVED}
